THE BARONIAL MISSIVE

Warmest Holiday Greetings to You!

What a year it has been! One of the greatest Wars in our history is in our rear view and an extremely busy year is on the horizon with Barbearian Brawl and Gulf Wars just around the corner.

But for now it is the Holiday Season. Now is the time for reflection and good fellowship. At this writing, we are greatly looking forward to the Baronial Christmas gathering which this year will be held at the home of THL Archer and THL Fronicka. Bring a gift and join the fun!

We would also like to ask that you be sure to look around and include those that might not have closeby family. The Holidays are hard on some gentles. Considering opening your homes and lives a little to those that may not have anywhere to go. The gifts you receive from this are far better than anything that comes wrapped in paper.

So, may your hearthfires be blazing, your cups full, and your lives full of family and fellowship. And let us go into the new year happy and hopeful for what is to come.

Martin and Gwyneth, Baron and Baroness of Small Gray Bear

RUDOLPH

THE RED-NOSED VIKING

A FILM BY THL MEDB

TO THE TUNE OF...WELL, YOU KNOW.

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Viking
Had a very shiny spear

And if you ever saw it,
You would need to keep well clear.

All of the other Vikings
Used to laugh and call him names.

They never let poor Rudolph
Go on any summer raids.

Then one foggy Yuletide Eve,
Odin came to say

“Rudolph with your spear so bright,
I will help you use it right.”

Then all the villagers feared him,
And the Vikings said with glee,

“Rudolph the Red-Nosed Viking, please come and raid with me!
